ISCAST Program Director (part-time)

Melbourne based – flexible working arrangements – approximately half-time

ISCAST is growing as we fulfil our strategic mission of promoting a healthy interaction between the sciences and Christian faith in Australia. Opportunities abound and we need an enthusiastic person to join the team. This is an exciting chance to be part of a vital Christian ministry and outreach.

The role of Program Director

The Program Director will work alongside the Executive Director in coordinating ISCAST activities across Australia.

The activities of ISCAST include the following:

- Promoting a constructive conversation between Christianity and the sciences
- Engaging with ISCAST members and fellows
- Developing resources for a wide network of people interested in science and Christianity
- Organising public lectures and symposia
- Speaking in schools to students and staff
- Speaking in churches and other Christian settings
- Fostering relationships with the media and providing comment, interviews, articles etc.
- Growing the ISCAST social media presence
- Running regular national conferences
- Publishing resources on the ISCAST website
- Publishing books
- Maintaining the ISCAST public library

Prerequisites for the role of Program Director

- A commitment to the Mission, Vision and Values of ISCAST
- Management, communication, and people skills
- A commitment to learn, to work in a team, and to empower volunteers
- A high degree of responsibility and attention to detail
- Computer skills including MS Word and Excel
- Background and experience that lends itself to working for ISCAST

The next step

If this opportunity might suit you, please contact the ISCAST Executive Director, Chris Mulherin by email at ChrisMulherin@ISCAST.org. In your email, please say, in a couple of paragraphs, why you are interested in the role and why you think you are suitable. Please note that, at this stage, this is not a formal job application. Due to the flexible nature of the role, we are keen to enter into preliminary conversations with potential applicants.
